Supplier Information Form (SIF)

Part I: General Information

Company Name/A Subsidiary/Division of: The naming convention submitted should reflect the name provided on W-9 and SAM registration. The Company Name submitted will be the name to whom all purchase orders/contracts are issued.

Street Address, Country Name (other than USA), City, State, Zip, County Name: The physical address that should appear on all purchase orders. This address should be listed on SAM registration, if an address other than what is provided here is listed in SAM, please provide reason.

Contact Name, Phone, Fax, Email Address: The primary point of contact for all procurement inquiries for supplier. All purchase orders will be issued to this contact and email address. Please note if additional contacts are needed.

Web Site Address: The supplier will need to provide a web site address if they would like the Buyers or FPEs to browse their products.

Part II: Business Specific Information

Unique Entity Identifier (UEI): The official name of the "new, non-proprietary identifier" (this has replaced the D-U-N-S number). The UEI will be requested in, and assigned by, the System for Award Management (SAM.gov).

Federal/Tax Identification Number: a unique nine-character identification number for guidance on the appropriate number to provide please see IRS Form W-9. The Federal/Tax Identification Number provided on SIF should match the number provided on W-9 submitted.

Global DUNS Number: Your global parent organization's DUNS number as defined in SAM.

Global Parent Name: The legal business name of your global parent entity as defined in SAM, if applicable.

DUNS Number: The unique nine-character identification provided by Dun and Bradstreet (D&B) that is assigned to entity.

Annual Revenue: This is the "total income" (or "gross income") plus the "cost of goods sold." These numbers can normally be found on the business' IRS tax return forms. Receipts are averaged over a business' latest three complete fiscal years to determine the average annual receipts. If a business hasn't been in business for three years, multiply its average weekly revenue by 52 to determine its average annual receipts.

Avg. No. of Employees: This is the average number of people employed for each pay period over the business' latest 12 calendar months. Any person on the payroll must be included as one employee regardless of hours worked or temporary status. The number of employees of a concern in business less than 12 months is the average for each pay period that it has been in business.

System for Award Management (SAM) Registration: The supplier will need to validate SAM Registration status is active and current as of the date this form is signed and submitted.

Part III: Socio-Economic Information

Company should select all applicable boxes. Each category is defined below:

Other Than Small Business (OTSB): A business that does not meet the definition of Small Business.

Small Business: Means a concern, including its affiliates, that is independently owned and operated, not dominant in the field of operation in which it is bidding on Government contracts, and qualified as a small business under the criteria and size standards in 13 CFR part 121 (see 19.102). Such a concern is "not dominant in its field of operation" when it does not exercise a controlling or major influence on a national basis in a kind of business activity in which a number of business concerns are primarily engaged. In determining whether dominance exists, consideration must be given to all appropriate factors, including volume of business, number of employees, financial resources, competitive status or position, ownership or control of materials, processes, patents, license agreements, facilities, sales territory, and nature of business activity. (See 15 U.S.C. 632.) FAR 2.101

Woman Owned:

1. A small business concern
 - i. That is at least 51 percent owned by one or more women; or, in the case of any publicly owned business, at least 51 percent of the stock of which is owned by one or more women; and
 - ii. Whose management and daily business operations are controlled by one or more women; or
2. A small business concern eligible under the Women-Owned Small Business Program in accordance with 13 CFR part 127 (see subpart 19.15). FAR 2.101

Veteran Owned:

1. A small business concern not less than 51 percent of which is owned by one or more veterans (as defined at 38 U.S.C. 101(2)) or, in the case of any publicly owned business, not less than 51 percent of the stock of which is owned by one or more veterans; and
2. The management and daily business operations of which are controlled by one or more veterans. FAR 2.101

Service-Disabled Veteran Owned: Service-disabled veteran-owned small business concern:

1. Means a small business concern
 - i. Not less than 51 percent of which is owned by one or more service-disabled veterans or, in the case of any publicly owned business, not less than 51 percent of the stock of which is owned by one or more service-disabled veterans; and
 - ii. The management and daily business operations of which are controlled by one or more service-disabled veterans or, in the case of a service-disabled veteran with permanent and severe disability, the spouse or permanent caregiver of such veteran.
2. Service-disabled veteran means a veteran, as defined in 38 U.S.C. 101(2), with a disability that is service-connected, as defined in 38 U.S.C. 101(16). FAR 2.101

Small Disadvantaged Business: consistent with 13 CFR 124.1002, means a small business concern under the size standard applicable to the acquisition, that is at least 51 percent unconditionally and directly owned (as defined at 13 CFR 124.105) by—

- i. One or more socially disadvantaged (as defined at 13 CFR 124.103) and economically disadvantaged (as defined at 13 CFR 124.104) individuals who are citizens of the United States; and
- ii. Each individual claiming economic disadvantage has a net worth not exceeding $750,000 after taking into account the applicable exclusions set forth at 13 CFR 124.104(c)(2); and
- iii. The management and daily business operations of which are controlled (as defined at 13 CFR 124.106) by individuals who meet the criteria in paragraphs (1)(i) and (ii) of this definition. FAR 2.101

Government Entity: Federal, state or local government.

Educational Institute: Educational institute of any level to include schools, colleges and universities.

Non-Profit: To be tax-exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, an organization must be organized and operated exclusively for exempt purposes set forth in section 501(c)(3), and none of its earnings may inure to any private shareholder or individual. In addition, it may not be an action organization, i.e., it may not attempt to influence legislation as a substantial part of its activities and it may not participate in any campaign activity for or against political candidates.

- Organizations described in section 501(c)(3) are commonly referred to as charitable organizations. Organizations described in section 501(c)(3), other than testing for public safety organizations, are eligible to receive tax-deductible contributions in accordance with Code section 170.
- The organization must not be organized or operated for the benefit of private interests, and no part of a section 501(c)(3) organization's net earnings may inure to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual. If the organization engages in an excess benefit transaction with a person having substantial influence over the organization, an excise tax may be imposed on the person and any organization managers agreeing to the transaction.
- Section 501(c)(3) organizations are restricted in how much political and legislative (lobbying) activities they may conduct. For a detailed discussion, see Political and Lobbying Activities. For more information about lobbying activities by charities, see the article Lobbying Issues; for more information about political activities of charities, see the FY-2002 CPE topic Election Year Issues. (Internal Revenue Service, 2017)

Affiliate: means associated business concerns or individuals if, directly or indirectly—either one controls or can control the other; or a third-party controls or can control both. FAR 2.101

HBCU/MI: Historically Black College or University (HBCU) means an institution determined by the Secretary of Education to meet the requirements of 34 CFR 608.2.
